

TCL wins Award Nov 2017

TransCentury Group has won an award in the Financial Reporting Awards – FIRE Awards – held on 17th of November 2017. The FIRE award is a joint initiative of the Institute of Certified Public Accountants of Kenya (ICPAK), the Capital Market Authority (CMA) Kenya, and the Nairobi Securities Exchange (NSE) founded with the primary objective to strengthen financial markets and attract investment. Business entities are expected to make proper disclosure of their activities as guided, to enable a wide range of stakeholders use such information in making economic decisions.
